

EIC Awards, 2004

ENGINEERING INSTITUTE OF CANADA
L'INSTITUT CANADIEN DES INGÉNIEURS

Honours, Awards & Fellowships - Médailles, Distinctions et Fellowships

*Presented at the EIC Awards Banquet on Saturday 6 March, 2004
Présenté lors du Banquet de l'ICI le samedi 6 mars, 2004*

LA MÉDAILLE K.Y. LO MEDAL

Dr. Norman C. Beaulieu, Edmonton, AB
University of Alberta

“For contributions to wireless communications engineering science and contributions to international engineering organizations through service as Editor-in-Chief of a leading international research journal”.

FELLOWSHIPS

The following members of IEEE Canada received EIC Fellowships:

Dr. Jamal M. Deen, Hamilton, ON
McMaster University

“For pioneering research contributions to modeling, noise and parameter extraction in silicon transistors and high speed photodetectors”.

Dr. Robert W. Donaldson, Vancouver, BC
University of British Columbia

“For contributions to packet transmission, error correction and speech encoding”.

Dr. David Haccoun, Montréal, QC
École Polytechnic de Montréal

“For contributions to error control coding techniques using convolutional codes and their applications to wireless communications”.

Dr. Subbarayan Pasupathy, Toronto, ON University of Toronto

“For contributions to research, scholarship and leadership in the field of telecommunications”.

Dr. Adam Skorek, Trois-Rivières, QC
Université de Québec à Trois Rivières

“For contribution to the numerical analysis of electro-thermal phenomena”.

